

NFBP Brilliance in Business Awards 2019

The Eric Robinson Award For Young Person in Business

Jeremy Whitworth (Montagu Arms Hotel)

Jeremy works as the Assistant Hotel Manager at The Montagu Arms Hotel in Beaulieu. He began his career in 2011 as a Chef de Rang, having already completed an NVQ Level 1 & 2 in Hospitality and Catering. He then undertook the Hospitality Supervision Advanced Apprenticeship at Brockenhurst College, a course designed for those looking to transition into a supervisory role. Upon completion, he was promoted to Restaurant Supervisor and later in 2013, to Assistant Restaurant Manager.

In 2016, Jeremy was promoted to Assistant Hotel Manager at The Montagu Arms. Within this role, he is responsible for ensuring health and safety regulations are being adhered to and the appropriate training is in place so that the property is compliant. Jeremy trains and mentors new starters, as well as being responsible for compiling and acting on guest feedback to improve performance and increase sales in all areas of the hotel operation.

Jeremy is now an ambassador for Brockenhurst College and works closely with both Eastleigh College and Southampton City College alongside the Head Chef, to support and inspire the next generation of hospitality stars.

He has recently been selected to participate in the Master Innholders Aspiring Leaders' course and upon completion hopes to apply for the Master Innholders Scholarship to become a St Julian's Scholar.

W: montaguarmshotel.co.uk

T: 01590 612324

E: jeremy@montaguarmshotel.co.uk

#NFBizAwards

nfbp.org.uk/awards

New Forest
Business Partnership

